

Water – Symbol is carried forward and placed

Prayer

O Spirit of the water, source and sustenance of life, waters of the womb and of birth, water of tears and toil, waters teeming with fish and plant; bathe and refresh us, nourish and sustain us, weep and work in us, birth with us a renewal of life.

Globe – Symbol is carried forward and placed

Prayer

God of the Universe, you who bring all life into being, create in us a deeper sense of community with all who share life on this planet earth. May we truly know others as our sisters and brothers; may we seek for all a just share in the resources needed to sustain life; may we value and respect all forms of living being and delight in the beauty and variety which are your gifts.

Hymn : The Earth is the Lord's (Tune: St Denio)

“The earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof.”
Creation reminds us, O God, of your love.
By grace we are learning, as year leads to year,
We're called to be stewards, your caretakers here.

Your rainforests nurture the world that we share.
Your wetlands give animals shelter and care.
Your coral reefs cradle the life of the sea.
You've shown us, in love, what your good world can be.

Too often, O God, we abuse your good earth.
We fail to remember its beauty and worth.
We take from creation much more than we need,
We threaten your world through indifference and greed.

May we be good stewards of all that you give,
Protecting creation wherever we live.
May we be a church that renews and restores
And lovingly cares for this earth that is yours.

CLIMATE CHANGE (2)

GATHERING

Whoever we are and wherever we come from, we share the reality that this earth is our home. So we come at this moment to remind ourselves of the truth that the ways in which we live within this earth home affect for good or ill the home itself and all that dwells within it.

Open to the moment, therefore, and open to one another we come before the mystery of life.

HMYN

Praise with Joy the World's Creator (Tune: Praise my soul)

Praise with joy the world's creator,
God of justice, love and peace;
Source and end of human knowledge,
Force of greatness without cease.
Celebrate the maker's glory,
Power to rescue and release.

Praise the Son who feeds the hungry,
Frees the captive, finds the lost,
Heals the sick, upsets religion,
Fearless both of fate and cost.
Celebrate Christ's constant presence,
Friend and stranger, guest and host.

Praise the Spirit sent among us,
Liberating truth from pride,
Forging bonds where race or gender,
Age or nation dare divide.
Celebrate the Spirit's treasure,
Foolishness none dare deride.

Praise the Maker, Son and Spirit,
One God in community,
Calling Christians to embody,
One-ness and diversity.
Thus the worlds shall yet believe,
When shown Christ's vibrant unity.

LITANY OF REPENTANCE

We have forgotten who we are.
We have alienated ourselves from the unfolding of the cosmos.
We have become estranged from the movements of the earth.
We have turned our backs on the cycles of life.

We have forgotten who we are

We have sought only our own security and failed to attend to those who live in insecurity.

We have exploited simply for our own ends, forgetting the others with whom we share the earth.

We have distorted our knowledge.

We have abused our power.

We have forgotten who we are

Now some lands are barren

And waters are poisoned

And air is polluted.

We have forgotten who we are

Now there are forests dying

And creatures disappearing

And in many lands the humans are despairing.

We have forgotten who we are

We ask forgiveness.

We ask for the gift of remembering.

We ask for the strength to change.

Reading: Isaiah 41: 17 - 20

When the poor and needy seek water,

And there is none, and their tongue is parched with thirst,

I the Lord will answer them.

I the God of Israel will not forsake them.

I will open rivers on the bare heights,

And fountains in the midst of the valleys; I will make the wilderness a pool of water,

And the dry land springs of water.

I will put in the wilderness the cedar,

The acacia, the myrtle and the olive,

I will set in the desert the cypress,

The plane and the pine together,

So that all may see and know,

All may consider and understand,

That the hand of the Lord has done this,

The Holy One of Israel has created it.

Invite the response at the end of each section: We join with the earth and with one another)

We join with the earth and with one another

To bring new life to the land,

To restore the waters,

To refresh the air.

We join with the earth and with one another.

To renew the forests,

To care for the plants,

To protect the creatures

We join with the earth and with one another.

To celebrate the seas,

To rejoice in the sunlight,

To sing the song of the stars

We join with the earth and with one another.

To create human community,

To promote justice and peace,

To eradicate poverty and inequality,

To remember the generations yet to come

We join with the earth and with one another.

We join together as many and diverse expressions of one loving mystery, for the healing of the earth and the renewal of all life. Amen

READING

“Consider the idea of God emerging from human engagement with the natural world in our day. In photographs taken from space, our home planet looks like a bright blue marble, swirled around with white clouds. Floating against a background of endless black space, it is a precious little spot that alone among all the planets, moons and asteroids we have explored to date, is covered with a membrane of life. Astronauts who have seen this view with their own eyes speak of its power to change their deepest feelings. Saudi Arabian astronaut Sultan bin Salman al-Saud, part of an international crew, recollected: ‘The first day we all pointed to our own countries. The third day we were pointing to our continents. By the fifth day we were all aware of only one Earth.’ Astronaut Rusty Schweigert, who walked on the moon, noted from that vantage point that Earth is so small you can block it out with your thumb. ‘Then you realise’, he mused ‘that on this beautiful warm blue and white circle, is everything that means anything to you’, all of nature and history, birth and love. And then you are changed forever.”

Prayer

O God, you who create the earth and the entire universe, fill us with reverence! You are the ground of our being; you drew us from the earth and call us to live in harmony with all that lives. To earth we shall return in the circle of life which is endless. We honour the earth and commit ourselves to live in right relation with the Planet.

Air – Symbol is carried forward and placed

Prayer

O Spirit of the air, you who breathe where you will, breath of our nostrils and wind in the trees, ever-creating, stirring, moving. Move us, shake us, sweep through us with energy, exhilaration and delight.

Fire – Symbol is carried forward and placed

Prayer

O God of the fire, cleansing, refining, tempering to enduring strength; tongued fire of wisdom and courage, free us to dance and to struggle. Shape the new world you call into being, make us strong and resilient.
